Articling Student

O LOCATION
Toronto

Alexandra is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office.

During law school, Alexandra led the article selection and publication process of the Ottawa Law Review as its Editor-in-Chief, English Articles. She received the Campagnolo Leadership Award in recognition of having made the most outstanding contribution to the OLR and the Norton Rose Fulbright Canada Scholarship for demonstrating academic excellence and team spirit within the Faculty of Law. Alexandra was also a Dean's Research and Writing Fellow, represented the University of Ottawa in the 2025 Laskin Moot Competition, and worked as a law student at the Department of Justice Canada's Civil Litigation Section.

Alexandra chose to work at BLG for its leading disputes and corporate practices and its work on complex matters that are of significant legal importance. She was also impressed by BLG's welcoming and community-oriented team and the Firm's dedication to advancing equity, diversity, and inclusion within the legal profession.

In her spare time, Alexandra enjoys hiking, watching My Cousin Vinny, listening to Idina Menzel, and thinking about her future as a great novelist.
