Chl   is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2025 summer term.

As a 3L law student, Chl   is the Managing Editor of the McGill Law Journal. As part of her managerial responsibilities at the Journal, she assists in the Journal's Indigenous Legal Citations Project. Chl   is also the Blog Coordinator of the McGill Centre for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism's blog and works as a Senior Caseworker at the Legal Information Clinic at McGill. Chl   is currently completing a student clerkship at the Superior Court of Quebec, Montreal Division, where she is clerking for Justice Michelin and Justice Pich  . She has previously interned in the Strategic Litigation department of the Center for Health, Human Rights and Development in Uganda, and has also worked as a Junior Policy Analyst at Global Affairs Canada.

Chl   is returning for her second summer at BLG and looks forward to doing more work in commercial litigation.

In Chl  's spare time you can find her doing reformer pilates, trying new restaurants (and recipes), and going on long city walks.
