Corbin is an articling student for the 2024-2025 articling term. He is focusing on business law.

Corbin is a graduate of Osgoode Hall Law School. During his time there, he was involved in various clubs and advocacy competitions. Corbin also developed an interest in corporate and securities law after participating in each of the mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance workshops. Before pursuing law, Corbin was a manager in a high growth startup and also previously played professional hockey.

Corbin chose BLG after meeting the people and experiencing the culture of the firm while going through the summer student interview process. He was also sold on the firm's emphasis towards mentorship and the flexible summer program that BLG offers to its students.

In Corbin's spare time he is raising a dog, staying active, reading, or trying new restaurants.
