Alicia maintains a broad litigation practice with a focus on commercial disputes. She acts on behalf of a range of commercial clients from small businesses, financial institutions, municipalities and other public sector and not-for-profit entities. Alicia brings a thoughtful and pragmatic approach to the management of her clients' matters.

Alicia has appeared before various first instance and appellate courts, including the Commercial List in Toronto and the Supreme Court of Canada.

Alicia summered and articulated at the firm before returning as an associate.
