Merritt's practice spans across both private and public markets. He advises clients in corporate matters ranging from mergers and acquisitions, financing needs, and disclosure compliance.

Prior to BLG, Merritt studied business administration at Ivey Business School at Western University, where he was a member of the Men's Varsity Rugby Team. Upon graduation, Merritt gained experience in Toronto working for both RBC Investor & Treasury Services and Colliers International, within the Graduate Rotational Program and the Private Capital Investment Group, respectively. At law school, Merritt served as an executive member for the Corporate Law Club. Merritt was both a summer and an articulated student at BLG.
