

BLG strengthens its Tax Law Group with new partner and National Leader of Tax Disputes, Patrick Reynaud

Toronto (June 9, 2025) – Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) welcomes Patrick Reynaud as partner in our Tax Law Group in Toronto and National Leader, Tax Disputes.

Patrick's practice focuses on resolving tax disputes, including tax litigation, administrative appeals and audits. Patrick has extensive experience with a wide range of tax disputes such as transfer pricing, capital markets, restructurings, anti-avoidance rules, penalties, foreign tax credits, tax withholdings, and employment benefits. Patrick also has wide knowledge of administrative law as it relates to tax disputes, in particular access to information, interest relief applications and voluntary disclosures.

In addition to the Canada Revenue Agency, Patrick deals with Revenu Québec and other provincial tax authorities. He is fluent in English and French. He has acted for clients at the Tax Court, the Federal Court, the Federal Court of Appeal, as well as provincial courts in Ontario and Québec.

"We are thrilled to welcome Patrick to the Tax Group as Partner and our new National Leader, Tax Disputes," said Stephen Redican, National Group Head, Specialized Business Law. "Patrick is a creative and client-focused tax lawyer with extensive experience in tax disputes and complex tax matters—expertise that will be an asset to our clients."

BLG's Tax Group is comprised of professionals from across our five offices and holds expertise in all areas of tax from corporate tax, estate planning, commodity tax, domestic and international transactions and tax disputes
