Denes provides guidance to a diverse range of clients on competition/antitrust, foreign investment review and consumer protection (advertising and marketing) law. He provides expertise and advice on:

- Proposed mergers
- Foreign investment review, including national security and cultural sector reviews
- Criminal cartel matters (price and wage fixing, bid rigging) and follow-on class actions
- Abuse of dominance and other unilateral conduct
- Competition compliance
- Consumer protection (advertising and marketing)

He both advocates before regulators and litigates on behalf of his clients. Making use of his dual Canadian and American law degrees, Denes regularly collaborates with attorneys in other jurisdictions to ensure consistent and outstanding representation for his large multinational clients.

Denes is also Co-Leader of BLG's Public Policy and Government Relations Group.

Early in his career, he spent a year seconded as corporate counsel to one of the world's largest information technology corporations.
