

Trade Policy & Negotiations

In a volatile international trade climate, businesses need to understand the means at their disposal—domestic laws, trade agreements, trade negotiations and dispute settlement—to open new markets, maintain access to existing opportunities and plan for the challenges of increasing global competition.

Our team helps domestic and international clients identify and deploy the right tools to achieve their market access objectives. Our clients benefit from the significant legal knowledge and strategic insight that comes from decades of experience across the trade spectrum, including:

- government
- the private sector
- the negotiating table and boardroom
- the WTO
- NAFTA
- domestic tribunals
