Patrick's practice focuses on commercial litigation, including tort and contractual liability matters. With sound judgment and exceptional analytical sharpness, he handles complex class actions in the fields of environmental law, banking, product liability, consumer law and privacy.

His expertise also extends to special procedures (injunctions), transport law, banking litigation, constitutional law, official languages, administrative law and disciplinary law. In addition to his arbitration expertise, he has pleaded before all judicial bodies in Québec and taken part in the preparation of a number of cases.
