Laura's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation and regulatory matters, with a particular emphasis on the oil and gas, and financial institution sectors.

She regularly represents:

- i. oil and gas clients involved in contractual or tortious disputes;
- ii. financial institutions and investment advisors involved in litigation claims or regulatory investigations;
- iii. shareholders, directors and officers involved in disputes concerning allegations of oppression, breaches of shareholder agreements, breaches of fiduciary duties or breaches of duties of care; and
- iv. corporations defending class actions.

Laura has extensive experience appearing before all levels of courts in Alberta, and other tribunals including the Alberta Utilities Commission and the former Mutual Fund Dealers Association.
