Emma maintains a diverse legal practice, with a focus on commercial litigation, arbitration and labour and employment.

She advises clients across a broad range of sectors, including contract, tort and construction disputes, along with terminations, discipline, and human rights complaints.

Emma helps clients navigate complex matters from early stages through to resolution, offering practical and tailored advice.

She summered and articulated with BLG before clerking for six justices at the Supreme Court of British Columbia. Emma returned to BLG as an associate following her clerkship.
