

British Columbia financial institutions legislative and regulatory reporter

August 11, 2023

The British Columbia (B.C.) Reporter provides a monthly summary of B.C.’s legislative and regulatory developments of relevance to provincially regulated financial institutions. It does not address Canadian federal financial services legislative and regulatory developments, although this information is provided by BLG separately. In addition, purely technical and administrative changes (such as changes to reporting forms) are not covered.

	Services Sector outlines the material risks posed to the financial services sector in B.C. as well as the specific impacts on each of the segments regulated by BCFSA. It then puts forward BCFSA's proposed approach, which rests on two pillars: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Financial institutions and pension plan administrators identifying, measuring, and managing natural catastrophes and climate-related risks (NCCR) for themselves and consumers; • The responsibility all financial services providers have in ensuring consumers have sufficient understanding of the products and services they are receiving.
July 10, 2023	Insurer code of market conduct released in British Columbia BCFSA has released its Insurer Code of Market Conduct, which reflects the Canadian Council of Insurance Regulators' Conduct of Insurance Business and Fair Treatment of Customers guidance. The Code is based on twelve Fair Treatment of Customers Principles, with the intent of providing insurers with flexibility to determine the strategies, policies, processes, procedures, and controls that apply to the offer of insurance products and services to customers based on the nature, size, and complexity of their activities.	B.C. authorized insurers must adopt and comply with Code by April 1, 2024.

June 26, 2023	Consultation on proposed amendments to real estate data collection rules BCFSA is consulting the public and licensees on proposed amendments to the Real Estate Services Rules (Rules) that will strengthen and clarify BCFSA's authority to collect real estate data. BCFSA aims to enhance its ability to gather this data to strengthen its understanding of current real estate market conditions and practices, including market-driven risks to residential real estate consumers, and to aid its evidence-based policy and decision-making. The proposed rules amendments also include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • new requirements for document retention; and • modifying the existing requirement to disclose conflicts of interest to require that disclosure in writing. 	Comments are due Aug. 27, 2023
