

International Trade & Investment

In a global economy, any changes to trade laws or investment regulations have the potential to create great opportunities or destroy industries. You can't afford to be passive in protecting your interests.

Our international trade and investment practice is the most senior and experienced in Canada, with the largest team of partners and associates dedicated exclusively to the field. We have earned the trust of our clients with consistently outstanding results.

Our team advises clients on all aspects of trade and investment regulation, including:

- customs and trade remedies
- sanctions and export controls
- anti-corruption
- trade policy and negotiations
- FTA and WTO dispute resolution
- investor-state arbitration
