Nicole advises clients on corporate structuring, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, family-owned enterprises, securities and investments. She provides a solid foundation for understanding her client's business and financial needs, recognizing inherent risks and strategically developing holistic and effective solutions. Nicole is a trusted advisor who is relationship driven and cares about her client's business needs and goals.

She has experience with M&A transactions for public and private companies, general corporate legal advisory, corporate governance, and regulatory compliance advice. She is well versed in matters related to private company investments, initial public offerings, capital market offerings, TSX Venture Exchange transactions, take-over bids and contested proxy battles. Nicole has worked with companies in the oil & gas and energy industry as well as early-stage companies in all industries. Additionally, Nicole is knowledgeable in investment fund and REIT structuring, formation, and transactional work as well as family enterprise governance, assessments and succession planning.
